

Mapping Our Military

Members of our armed forces can be found in many countries around the world. This global presence allows forces to respond quickly when needed in combat or for humanitarian relief in times of crisis.

Instructions: Read the sentences below to discover the location of each service member. Then find the symbol on the map sheet and label the country.

1. I work aboard a Navy aircraft carrier as an engineer. When not at sea, our ship can be found at port in a country in Asia that is made up of many islands. I am in Japan. Find the
2. The Army base where I work as a dentist is one of many American military bases in this country north of Italy. I am in Germany. Find the
3. As a Marine, I'm in a country that borders Iran and Pakistan. I am in Afghanistan. Find the
4. As an engineer in the Army, I was recently in Africa. I was in Liberia. Find the
5. As a nurse in the Navy, I care for service members, their families, and people in need. I am in the United States. Find the
6. After completing my training, I became an Air Force pilot. I am currently stationed in a country in Europe. I am in the United Kingdom. Find the
7. I am a sailor in the Navy. Currently, I am overseas stationed in a place that is not only a country, but also a continent. I am in Australia. Find the
8. As a member of the Army, I am in a country in South America that borders the Pacific Ocean. I am in Chile. Find the

THINK ABOUT IT: What countries have you lived in or visited? Can you find them on the map?

Mapping Our Military

